

NO BORDERS FOR CLIMATE ACTION

Swiss and Global Students to Debate Action on Climate Change

As the world meets in Brazil for COP30, join us for a special evening panel that builds on an afternoon of exchanges between Swiss and international students on climate change. Hear directly from young people as they share their takeaways and put their questions to decision-makers, including Michael Götte (SVP), representatives of UN Climate Change (UNFCCC), the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC), and the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR).

What to expect:

Direct youth-leader exchange

Students present their ideas and ask questions to decision-makers.

International perspective

Views from Switzerland, Brazil, Zambia, and the UAE.

Share solutions

Exploring how local ideas can inspire global climate action ahead of COP30.

High-level panel discussion

A high-level panel bringing together political leaders, experts, and youth representatives.
